Cascina Ca' Rossa Roero Valmaggione "Audinaggio"

Appellation: Roero DOCG, Valmaggione

Type: Red, dry

Varietal: 100% Nebbiolo

Certified Organic

The name Valmaggione is an approved additional geographical mention (Cru) of the appellation Roero. Audinaggio comes from the Piemontese word "Autinagia" which translates as "small plot of land" and refers to a tiny single vineyard plot the estate uses to produce this unique Roero.

Tasting Notes

Color: Deep garnet.

Bouquet: Intense, with ripe red fruit and spice well balanced by the vertical freshness of the wine. There are notes of violet, cherry, and scents of pepper and mint.

Taste: Rich, round and smooth. Moderate acidity and high alcohol content make the texture firm. The wine expands and develops slowly recalling the red fruit notes evident in the bouquet. Long finish with intense, smooth tannins.

Alcohol: 14-14.5%.

Serving Temperature: 16-18° C (60-64° F).

Food Pairing

Excellent with roasted red meat, game, risottos, light fried foods, fondue, truffle-based dishes and ripe cheese.

Vineyard Notes

Production Area: Vezza d'Alba, Valmaggione, Roero, Piemonte.

Vineyard: All of the fruit is from the estate's Audinaggio vineyard.

Elevation: 220-270 meters (720-885 feet) a.s.l.

Exposure: South-west exposure.

Soil: Mainly sandy.

Cultivation system: Guyot.

Winemaking Notes

Harvest: Hand-harvested in the middle of October.

Ageing: 18 months in new and used French oak barriques, subsequent assembly in steel and a few months in the bottle before release.

Cascina Ca' Rossa is located in Canale, in the heart of the Roero, once known for its fruit growing and which has now become one of the major wine production areas in Piedmont. The winery is synonymous with the untiring, generous Angelo Ferrio, whose contagious good spirits and cheerfulness infect all around him. He has built the estate's award-winning reputation on vineyard plots that are some of the best and most distinctive in the Roero DOCG. The Mompissano vineyard, a south-facing hillside of one and a half hectares of immaculately tended Nebbiolo vines. Mulassa, a Barbera vineyard, on the same hill. Audinaggio, a 60-year-old two-hectare vineyard with sandy soil in the Valmaggione cru, and in the Santo Stefano a three-hectare property planted with Nebbiolo and Arneis Le Coste cru.
